A charming Greek taverna

Part of a small cluster of venues that operate from the Armada Avenue hotel in JLT, Mythos Kouzina & Grill has a charm all of its own. Heading down the warren-like corridor isn't the greatest welcome experience in Dubai, but any confusion over the location will soon melt away once you're inside this cosy, quaint restaurant.

Created by a Greek team and helmed by a Greek chef, Mythos certainly has the right pedigree, and whoever was behind the design has nailed the rustic taverna aesthetic. The restaurant feels like a real escape away from Dubai's busy city life.

Each visit begins with excellent, house-baked bread brought to the table, with tapenade and olive oil.

Staff are friendly and full of recommendations, but anyone with a passing knowledge of Greek food will be familiar with most of the dishes. From tzatziki to saganaki and souvlaki to stifado, those hearty flavours from Greece are all represented here. And the style from the kitchen is to keep things pure. There's not much in the way of invention at Mythos, the food is kept simple, letting the ingredients and flavours shine. The team knows what its diners want and is happy to deliver course after course of heart-warming food.

Try the taramasalata to see how it's really meant to be, tuck into perfect crispy calamari and move onto succulent chicken souvlaki, you won't regret those choices, or heading to Mythos for lunch or dinner.
